Youth to Live Abroad

NWMSC Is Now Cooperating With Peace Corps Project

Northwest Missouri State College is now cooperating with the Federal government in promoting the Peace Corps, a project which was formally announced by President Kennedy on March 1.

Representative Of Women's Army Corps To Be Here April 25

Lieutenant Joyce Shepard, Women's Army Corps Selection Officer for the state of Missouri, will be on campus Tuesday, April 25.

During her visit here, the lieutenant will be available for consultation on the requirements for a young woman with a college degree—in any major—to apply for commissioning as an officer in the Women's Army Corps.

The Army's College Junior program will also be introduced. This new program features attendance as a cadet in a four-week orientation to life in the military service, during the summer preceding the student's senior year.

Youth to Help

The purpose of the Peace Corps is to send our youth to any and all countries and to offer them skills and trainings which these youth will have gained through their own studies and training.

The volunteers will live under conditions the same as those of the people with whom they will stay. These youths will receive only their maintenance costs with the possibility of a small allowance.

Peace Corps volunteers should have technical ability, physical stamina, and emotional stability. They must be able to adapt themselves to an unfamiliar way of life and to work overseas with peoples of all creeds.

Language Skill Needed

Many volunteers will work and live apart from other Americans. Proficiency in a language other than English often will be necessary. The usual length of service will be two years.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Culture Vs. Students

Duh, Yuh Odda B 'Shamed!!

This month our college was fortunate to have a distinguished gentleman consent to speak to the students of this institution. This gentleman was Associate Justice Douglas of the United States Supreme Court.

Is Your Culture Showing?

The Associate Justice gave a very interesting talk entitled "America vs. Communism," but perhaps the speech should have been entitled "Culture vs. Students." The attendance at this assembly was so meager that a visitor, not realizing that NWMSU students are anti-culture, might possibly estimate our college's enrollment as a tiny 150 students.

Actually we have a solid 1889 students enrolled this semester. With this number of young people, one would expect a much better turn-out for such assemblies. OOPS, we forgot... the average NWMSU student is anti-culture!

At least this appears to be so judging from the amount of interest shown in the cultural events scheduled for the students' benefit.

Are YOU an average student in this respect? Yuh odda B 'shamed, Kiddies!

Profs Stress Word Study

The campus professors stress the idea of an adequate vocabulary by learning the definitions of words. Our feature writer has added the following to the ever-growing list:

Peer Relationships: The proximity or distance between the sailboat which you are trying to bring into dock and the peer.

Passive Phase: Not having to repeat a particular course because you received passive grades instead of failing ones.

Archaic: Joint ownership of a chaise, which is a rather small, narrow boat the Indians use when trying to catch fish, or just for kicks.

Generalized movement: The type of movement put to use when an ant crawls down your back.

Beckon: The type of meat I like to have for breakfast.

Haigs: I usually like two haigs with my beckon.

Cooperation: A double operation, as when you have your tonsils and adenoids both removed. You can get two for the price of one this way.

Context: A textbook which discusses the fine arts of how to engage in various and sundry confidence rackets.

Focalize: Ize that can focal on things real good.

And then there was that proud mother who named her son's cattle ranch Focus (Focus where the sun's rays meet).

Homecoming Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Homecoming Committee Monday, April 24, in Room 314 of the Classroom Building.

Dr. John Harr, sponsor, urges all the organizations to make sure that their representatives attend this meeting.

Committee Plans Association For Student Housers

During this past year the Housing Committee, Dean Wilson, Dean Bladt, and Dean Koerle, has been working with the householders in town.

The outcome has been the organization of a Householder's Association for better communication between students, householders, and the college.

Deposit Required

The requirement of a $25 deposit of off-campus, as well as on-campus students, is of greatest importance to the students. This deposit will be held in escrow by the college to prevent students from entering into a contractual arrangement with the householder and then leaving at any time they choose. The same deposit works to the mutual protection of the student.

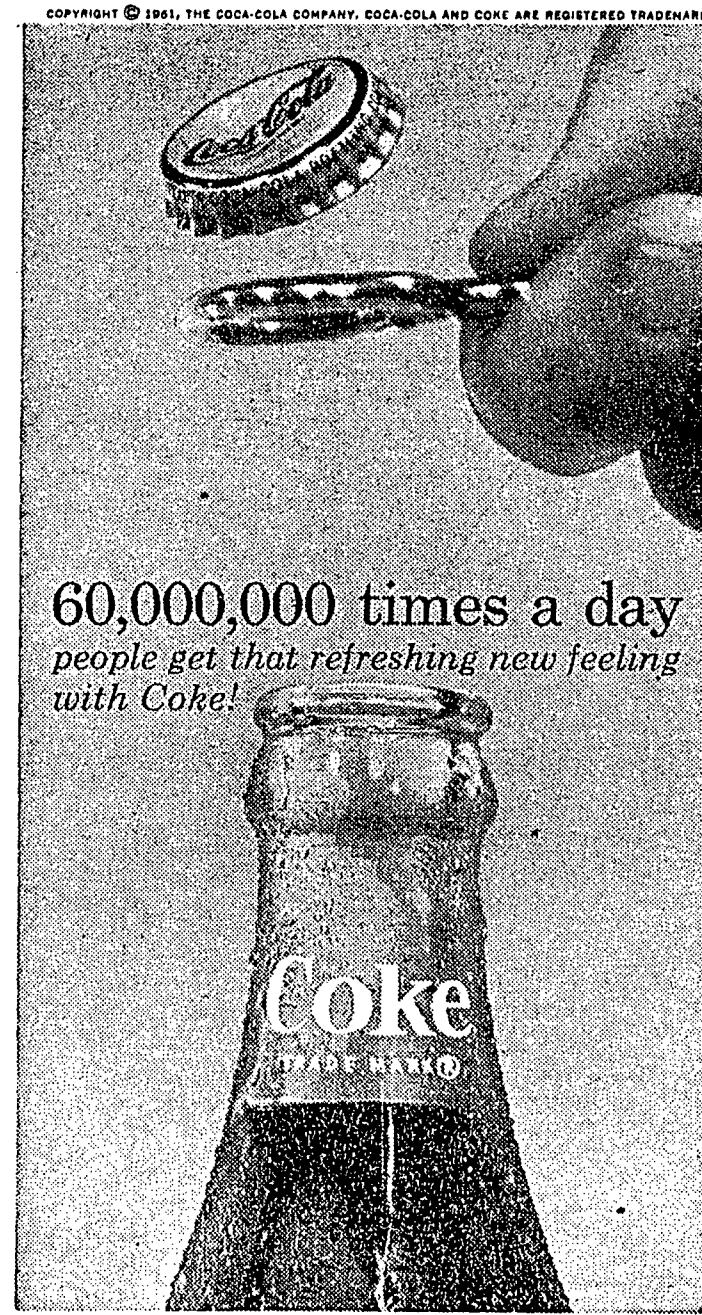

The Association will provide security so that more townspeople will open their houses to the students. The members of the Association will not be at the mercy of the householders who offer lower rentals and cheaper facilities, thus enticing a student to move from one house to another.

The organization has been established and the agreement form is being drawn up. This agreement will be presented to students this fall for signatures.

New Rules Fixed For Scholarships

Starting in the fall, there will be a new procedure for applying for scholarships. All possible scholarships will come under the same committee rather than having a variety of committees for each scholarship. The committee will also deal with the renewal of scholarships.

There will be an increased emphasis not only on the student's academic capabilities, but also on his actual financial need so that the scholarships will be distributed more equitably.

If students are interested in applying for scholarships, they should get the forms from the Field Service Office. Applying for one scholarship does not exclude the student from being considered for others.

Chalk Talk

... With Bob Cobb

A few seasons ago an English poet who had quite a pitch himself, Percy Blysshe Shelley, said, "If winter comes, can Spring be far behind?" But Bearcat coaches and athletes were wondering how far behind last week.

The unseasonable cold and above normal precipitation has dampened the lid on most of the spring sports.

Fins for Spikes?

There was a rumor about campus that the 'Cat baseballers were exchanging their spikes for swim fins. Was it true that Coach Richey was considering the aid of Loyd Bridges to instruct the Cat infielders how to field a ground ball underwater?

The duffer's cry of "Fore" can once again be heard in Bearcat varsity sport competition. The 'Cat golf team has been working out regularly under the direction of Coach Ryland Milner.

Apparently there has been a reconciliation with local Country Club officials. The talk is that our golfers may present a very capable crew for intercollegiate competition.

In the baseball line, your reporter has noticed several Bearcat cagers keeping their shooting touch in trim for next season.

Hopes Bright for Netters

The 'Cat tennis team, also affected by bad weather, should live up to its potential and bring back another MIAA Crown to the Bearcat land. If they can accomplish this, it will mark the third conference tennis championship for the Bearcats in a row.

Coach Suffers Blood Clot

We're sorry to hear about the continuing illness of Dr. H. D. Peterson, chairman of the health and physical division of NWMSC and wrestling coach. He was taken by ambulance Sunday night, April 8, to Research Hospital, Kansas City, where he is undergoing tests and treatments for a blood clot in the leg.

Dr. Peterson recently had an appendectomy and was taken from the local hospital to Kansas City.

What great school spirit we would have if Bearcat athletic teams were supported with as much enthusiasm as shown in the recent election campaigns! "Wait 'till the Sun shines, Bearcats!"
